WANT OKLAHOMA LINE

Shawnee Expects to Welcome the Missouri Pacific Some Day. Shawnee, O. T., Oct. 21.-There is a trong probability that the Missouri Padic railway, the great Gould line, will uild a connection through this territory from its Claremore, I. T., extension. The wners of the system have long desired an Oklahoma line and there now seems to be active preparations on their part o carry out their desires.

The company recently incorporated the shawnee and Northwestern railroad company, is charteded to build a line from Claremore to Shawnee, and on southwest if desirable. Interesting Case Came Up From Enid

Charging Police Judge. Guthrie, O. T., Oct. 21.—The case of Michael Beach, police judge of Enid. has reached the Oklahoma supreme court, enttled Beach vs. John B. Luden, mayor of End, and others, including all members of the city council. The city autorney, McKeever, filed with the council charges against Beach, alleging official misconduct, Roach seeks a permanent writ of prohibition, preventing the council from taking action in his case, claiming that cody has not the jurisdiction of a court in hearing such charges. In the district court Judge Irwin granted a temporary order. The charges against Beach allege that he fined gamblers but $1 and costs, where the statute provides a minimum fine of $5 and costs; that he allowed prostitutes, gamblers, drunks and misdemeanor convicts in general to pay their fines on the installment plan, and that in many cases no commitments were le-
